

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION

JANUARY 2020
NEWSLETTER

On January 1, 2020 the City of Hondo will be launching its official Facebook page.

Sign, Sealed, Delivered!

The James W. Danner Sr. Annex Training Center is officially complete. All welding equipment has been ordered and is being delivered little by little. Once we have received all equipment and set up is complete we hope to schedule an Open House before the first day of class. Check our Facebook page for more information on upcoming events.

The Final Countdown

Offices at SWTJC will re open on January 2,2020. If you or anyone you know is interested in the welding or patient care technician program offered in Hondo please contact the assigned coordinator. For Patient Care Technician please Contact: Judy Estrada, PCT Coordinator at jfgonzales@swtjc.edu, for the Welding Program contact the Welding Department directly at (830)591-7231.

Tips to Start and Grow Your Small Business

Starting January 6, 2020 the Workforce Solutions Alamo along with Alamo Colleges, Small Business Development Center Network, Coastal Bend College and the City of Hondo will be offering a Women's Entrepreneur Boot Camp that will give information on everything you need to know about starting a business to growing your business. Register at www.workforcesolutionsalamo.org

Norman Terrill Jr, and Medina Healthcare System staff pose with EDC Director Genevieve Flores and Good Careers CNA Program Director Jolie Lazier with donated equipment for the new Patient Care Technician program set to kick off January 2020.

We would like to recognize our board members. 43 Meetings, totaling about 402 volunteer hours this year! Thank you to all our board members for your time and willingness to make Hondo a great place to live.
